

This week we pray especially for those living at North Street, Nursery Lane, Old Lane and anyone who is unwell, feeling lonely or worried Pastoral support: St. Peter's is here to help you and those you are concerned about, in confidence. Please contact our pastoral care co-ordinator Judy Hutton on 07989 306 526.

For details of all Children and Family events at St. Peter's, please see C.A.F.E Facebook page or St. Peter's posters, website and Facebook

Another way to stay in the loop of St. Peter's community! Details of all services and events are on our church website and our Facebook page, as well as on posters, and services are livestreamed and on dial in, but all these require positive action on your part, so some find that a regular email arriving from church (such as we used during lockdown) would be an easier way to keep in touch. It's also an alternative way to share any urgent messages like changes because of the weather. We need your permission to use your email address (because of data protection laws) so if you would like to be included please let us know by sending an email from your address to contact@stpetersaddingham.org.uk (or drop a note in to the office with your email address), or phone 830306 by the end of January.

ALPHA is back at The Fleece each Wednesday at 7pm – come and share in coffee and informal conversation about life, faith and what matters. Find out more from 830306 or stpetersaddingham.org.uk/alpha/

Next Messy Church will be Sunday 26th January at 4pm - a different kind of church especially for families, but everyone is welcome - crafts, music, fun, informal worship and a simple meal.

The Collect

Eternal Lord,
our beginning and our end:
bring us with the whole creation
to your glory, hidden through past ages
and made known
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name
that the mouth of the LORD will give.
You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land shall be married.
For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

John 2.1-11

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you, O Lord

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion

God of glory,
you nourish us with your Word
who is the bread of life:
fill us with your Holy Spirit
that through us the light of your glory
may shine in all the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
