Community/Pastoral message: you and your neighbours may find it helpful, in the absence of the Co-op, to know that Addingham Sandwich Shop stocks some basic groceries (milk, bread, eggs, butter, yoghurt, tea, coffee, orange juice, cheese, ham) and can get salad items and fruit to order. You can 'phone them on 839009 for more details.

If you have not already watched it, the Podcast on Light can now be accessed directly from this link: <https://vimeo.com/1054820531> or as usual via the online tab on our website. It includes an interesting and thought-provoking chat between Shannon and Mark and in Shannon's words ' The readings and the music with their videos make it to be quite a contemplative, worshipful experience.'

Addingham Primary School has sent a renewed appeal from volunteers to listen to children reading (age 4-5). It is weekly commitment but can be varied if the need arises. Philippa or Lucy have more information, supplied by one of those already taking part. (APS need volunteers for one-off events too e.g. school outings; ask for contact details.)

Join a wave of prayer around the globe, everyone is welcome at a World Day of Prayer event on Friday 7th March at Addingham Methodist Chapel 2pm, with refreshments afterwards. The service has been prepared by Christian women in the Cook Islands (a group of 15 islands spread over nearly 800,000 square miles in the Pacific Ocean), and is based on Psalm 139; it's entitled 'I made you wonderful', and invites us to recognise God's loving care for each one of us, that we are unique and should cherish all aspects of ourselves and of those around us, and that God created us, knows us and is with us.

First Reading

Genesis 2.4b-9, 15-end

In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up - for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground - then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, 'You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.'

Then the LORD God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.' So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man.

Then the man said,

'This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called Woman,
for out of Man this one was taken.'

Therefore, a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

The Gospel

Luke 8.22-25

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you, O Lord

One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side of the lake.' So they put out, and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A gale swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. They went to him and woke him up, shouting, 'Master, Master, we are perishing!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. He said to them, 'Where is your faith?' They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion

God our creator,
by your gift
the tree of life was set at the heart of the earthly paradise,
and the bread of life at the heart of your Church:
may we who have been nourished at your table on earth
be transformed by the glory of the Saviour's cross
and enjoy the delights of eternity;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
