

This week we pray especially for those living at Brumfitt Hill and Burns Hill and anyone who is unwell, feeling lonely or worried.

Pastoral support: St. Peter's is here to help you and those you are concerned about, in confidence. Please contact our pastoral care co-ordinator Judy Hutton on 07989 306 526.

We can now confirm that Roger Bainbridge's funeral will be at 12.30 on Friday 27 June.

After Jesse's great pitch last week for additional sidespeople, I thought we would be inundated and turning people away but no!! So please reconsider for a commitment to help of only about 6 x a year to greet people inside, hand out information and ensure services run smoothly. Please speak to Margaret or Penny if you're even thinking about it.

Reminder: Please sign up for Wulfherans Tea Party on the sheet in the hall

To try to keep the congregation better informed about the deliberations of the PCC, a number of ideas are being initiated. Post every PCC, a few bullet point headlines have now been posted in the porch and the hall. If you want further details, please speak to any member of the PCC, whose photos will now be posted in the porch. Once the minutes have been approved at the following PCC, they will be available in a folder at the back of church.

In addition, a different type of podcast is under development to share how we are trying to fulfil our Parish mission, specifically in terms of improving access, becoming a more welcoming and inviting church that encourages new people, families and younger people, who may look for a different sort of church. It will show how we wish to cherish and protect our traditions and heritage while adding some innovation to engage a different group of people. This will be quite a short podcast and we will show it in the church hall after a service to help those who may have difficulty accessing the website or Facebook. There will be an opportunity for questions. This precedes any official consultation about possible changes which will take place once we have received feedback from the Diocese about what is and is not likely to be acceptable.

Open Gardens on 21/22 June includes the church orchard and we need a few volunteers to be on hand. Please contact Christine S if you can help.

The Collect

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading

Galatians 3.23-end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore, the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

Luke 8.26-39

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you, O Lord

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time, he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion

Eternal Father,
we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts:
may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope, and make us grow in love;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.
