

This week we pray especially for those living on George Street and Gill Close and anyone who is unwell, feeling lonely or worried.

Pastoral support: St. Peter's is here to help you and those you are concerned about, in confidence. Please contact our pastoral care co-ordinator Judy Hutton on 07989 306 526.

Food Bank: Please bring your donations next Sunday and leave them at the back of church or in the church porch. Thank you.

During the 10am service today and in place of the Rector's Talk, we will be showing in two parts the latest podcast 'A Church for Tomorrow'. This podcast focuses on how we might better achieve our mission as a church looking forward. Our stated mission is to 'support and extend our ministry with families, young adults and children; become a more outwardly focused and inclusive all-age parish community which is more responsive to the needs of young families and central to village life; and to become a truly welcoming church to all'. It identifies what we do well, what challenges we have and some possible solutions that are under consideration. It is a first step in sharing ideas and seeking people's views and further ideas prior to the formal Parish consultation process. Please think carefully and prayerfully about this and share your thoughts with Mark or any member of the PCC.

Children's Church will be back from summer break next week, Sunday 7th September at 10am - can't wait!

Messy Church dates for your diary: Sundays at 4pm, September 14th, October 12th, November 16th, December 14th.

Rob's Run, Sunday 7th Sept - see poster for all details of how to donate.

Due to operations and injuries, we are a little short of sidesteam staff during September and October. If you could help out on a temporary basis, please have a word with Lucy.

If you have ideas for themes for future podcasts, these are always welcome. Please give your suggestions to Penny or Mark.

The Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power
most chiefly in showing mercy and pity:
mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace,
that we, running the way of your commandments,
may receive your gracious promises,
and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading

Hebrews: 13.1-8,15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence,

    'The Lord is my helper;
    I will not be afraid.
    What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

Luke 14.1,7-14

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you, O Lord

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the Sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace:
by our communion
keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel
and preserve us from all sin;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
