Sunday 25th January, starting around 9am we're having another Cross-over Breakfast, an all-age opportunity to share a simple meal together at St. Peter's, whether you normally come to 8.30am, Children's Church, 10am, Messy Church or Evensong. Do come!

Any ideas for the next podcast? Anything that might be helpful or interesting for you? It might be linked to the church year (eg Candlemass), to a christian value (eg spirituality, courage, forgiveness, compassion), to something that you find confusing or difficult (eg the relevance of the bible in today's world), or something you are struggling to engage with (eg contemporary church music) Anything that might help people in the church and in the local community to think more about the meaning and values of their life. Any ideas to Mark or Penny please.

The Collect

Eternal Lord,
our beginning and our end:
bring us with the whole creation
to your glory, hidden through past ages
and made known
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading

Isaiah 49.1-7

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away!
The LORD called me before I was born,
 while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away.
And he said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.'
But I said, 'I have laboured in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my cause is with the LORD, and my reward with my God.'
And now the LORD says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honoured in the sight of the LORD,
 and my God has become my strength—
he says, 'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
 to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations,
 that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'
Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers,
'Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
 the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.'

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

John 1.29-42

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you, O Lord

The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, 'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit." And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.'

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, 'Look, here is the Lamb of God!' The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi' (which translated means Teacher), 'where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas' (which is translated Peter).

Praise to you, O Christ
