

Pastoral support: St. Peter's is here to help you and those you are concerned about, in confidence. Please contact Judy Hutton, our pastoral co-ordinator, on 07989 306526.

Following Mark's recent announcement about our insurers requesting higher control over key holders, if you have any or many keys, PLEASE could you email (or hand on paper) to Penny with your list. This is now URGENT.

FOSPA teas have started again. Come and enjoy a cuppa and delicious home made cake, bring friends and family, any Sunday from 2pm to 4pm until further notice (watch this space for our ending date this year). If you can volunteer to help with serving teas one week, please sign on the list in the hall. This would help to prolong the season. Thank you.

Strawberry Teas, in aid of Martin House, will be served in St. Peter's Church Hall on Saturday 20th June, 2pm – 5pm. Pay on the door.

Tuesday 16th June 7pm "How to save lives" free event at Memorial Hall, everyone welcomed to learn vital lessons from local First Responders - see poster for more details.

Exodus 19.2-8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.'

The Gospel

read by Lucy Comerford

Matthew 9.35-10.8

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of you Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.
