

St. Peter's Addingham a place of Christian worship in three millennia

SOURCE

this month includes

Rector's Journal

Hymn Writers : 5 by Robin

Nature Notes by Margaret S plus News from Sudan

A look at Luke Pray the day

What are you grateful for ...?

Friday: dull ache in jaw, and I have lost the ability to crunch Maltesers on the right hand teeth.... hope it passes.

Saturday: 2am - frantically emptying cupboards looking for pills – anything will do.

Saturday: 9am - look at prices for emergency treatment, decide to double up on the pills.

Saturday/Sunday - midnight and I'm carefully planning the painkiller timetable so as to provide relief at the 10am service. This means aiming for a Personal Best at 8am, and I manage a respectable 22 minutes.

have to leave the church rapidly and munch Nurofen and Anadin.

Monday: Alleluia! Praise the Lord! My sainted dentist sees me at 11am and diagnoses an infection, prescribing 2 lots of antibiotics. Never have I paid a bill so gladly, never was I prepared to offer unto half my kingdom (not that big an offer really) to obtain relief. Never have I slept for so long.

By strange coincidence, we are launching our giving campaign at church; focusing on what we are grateful for, and how much of our time, talents, and money we would give to God out of sheer gratitude. If we felt a fraction of the gratitude, which I felt for my dentist when she cured my pain, to God for redeeming and saving us; then the Church would not have a "giving" problem at all.

18th October: St. Luke – gospel writer & physician

Described by Paul as "the beloved physician", Luke is the patron saint of doctors. His name means "Light Giver", and through his writings we meet Jesus, the Light of the World. Luke is author both of the third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles (together, over a quarter of the New Testament!), placing special emphasis on the poor, social justice and women – it is believed he may have been close to Mary the mother of Jesus, since so much of his Gospel is written from her point of view (including the Annunciation, the Magnificat, the Presentation in the Temple and the boy Jesus lost in Jerusalem). Forgiveness and God's mercy are also of first importance to Luke in reporting Jesus' ministry – only from him do we know the parable of the Prodigal Son and hear of the woman who washed Jesus' feet with her tears – and he often focuses on Gentiles, such as in the parable of the Good Samaritan (again, found only in his Gospel). Luke was not himself an eyewitness to Jesus, but he travelled with Paul on some of his missionary journeys.

Almighty God, who inspired your servant St. Luke to set out in his Gospel the love and healing power of your Son : please bless all medical staff, and make obvious in your church Christ's love and power for the healing of bodies and souls, to the glory of your name; through Jesus our Lord, Amen.

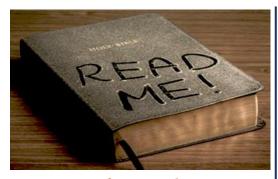

Need help to pray regularly? Try this...

Liturgy of the Hours

Stuart Townend

- With ev'ry morning I will kneel to pray, to be a blessing in this coming day In ev'rything I say and ev'rything I do, to wholly honour you.
- At noon remind me through this day to give my full attention to the ones I'm with, Be mindful of those things around and those within, and fully enter in.
- And in the evening as my thoughts retell this passing day let me remember well; So that no bitterness takes root within my soul, help me to let them go.
- And in the night-time may my mind be free to truly rest and be refreshed in sleep; And by releasing every worry, every strain, be free to start again.
- Teach me the wisdom of remembering, and give me the wisdom to forget.
 - Lead me, oh, teach me to live each day for you.
- Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me and before; Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore.
- Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in peace and Christ in storm; Christ in hearts of all who know me, Christ in friend and stranger all.

St. Peter's Study Group meets again on Thursday 19th October, 2.30pm at 156 Main St, asking what the Bible means to us today – come and share ideas over a coffee.

Funeral Sep 28 Florence Muriel Lloyd-Henderson

Do your little bit of good where you are; it's those little bits of good put together that overwhelm the world. Desmond Tutu

Hymn Writers : William Chatterton Dix (1837–1898)

part 5 of an occasional series by Robin Leleux

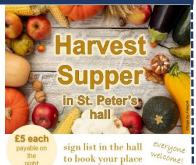

'Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness' wrote John Keats in his poem 'To Autumn'. In church, we celebrate this season with our Harvest Festival hymn 'To thee O Lord our hearts we raise', in the words of William Chatterton Dix (with tune by Sir Arthur Sullivan) (listen at www.youtube.com/watch?v=6P7StHkaLAM).

Although a Bristol man by birth, Dix spent much of his life in Glasgow working in marine insurance; he also wrote and published hymns and spiritual works throughout his life. Early in 1859 he was convalescing so unable to attend the Epiphany Sunday service at his church; instead, he read of the coming of the Magi in Matthew's Gospel, which inspired him to write his Christmas -Epiphany hymn 'As with gladness men of old' (listen to it here www.youtube.com/watch?v=UB8rKNrlpDQ). This was published in Hymns Ancient & Modern which appeared soon after, which pleased him as a layman since most of the new hymnal's contributors were clergymen.

In his late twenties Dix was seriously ill for months which resulted in severe depression - but also something of a spiritual awakening, for it was in this period (1865-6) that he wrote some of his best-known hymns and carols including the communion hymn 'Alleluia, sing to Jesus' (www.youtube.com/watch?v=UJDWFYIkBns) and his most widely loved carol 'The Manger Throne' ('What child is this'). Six years later, this poem was incomparably set to the English Folk tune 'Greensleeves', in an arrangement probably by the great English composer and arranger of church music, John Stainer (our recording at this link is a less formal arrangement www.youtube.com/watch?v=w08aluGa-tM).

Wulfherans

Sign up for our Harvest Supper Tuesday 3rd Oct 7.30pm £5, pay on the night

SUDAN IN CRISIS The church in Sudan, a poverty stricken country in N.E. Africa, is our Link Diocese. Now army factions are waging a brutal war for power there, with civilians terrorised & homeless, power & water supplies destroyed, churches, mosques & hospitals looted, food shortages, & genocide. The church in Sudan has asked us to pray for peace, & for their safety & their relief efforts at this terrible time.

Please see Sudan News board at back of church, & include Sudan in your prayers Peace point

Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved by understanding. Albert Einstein auturn leaves ...

Contacts

Rector: Revd Mark Cannon 01943 831 382

Children and Family worker: Tamsin Carr childrenandfamilywork@stpetersaddingham.org.uk

Churchwarden: Margaret Widdowson margaretwidd3@btinternet.com

Parish Office: 01943 830 306 contact@stpetersaddingham.org.uk

Find out more www.stpetersaddingham.org.uk St Peters Church Addingham 01943 830 306 contact@stpetersaddingham.org.uk

For up-to-date details of all services and activities, please look at our website, follow us on f Facebook or pick up a "What's On" leaflet.

Everyone is welcome and you can also join with St. Peter's online; we livestream many of our services to our f Facebook page, so take a look.

You can also follow f C.a.f.e – children and family events at St. Peter's Addingham

You can watch all St. Peter's Podcasts at vimeo.com/showcase/10274277 doesn't

Nature Notes for October

Early in the week I walked down the lane towards the canal with just the most lovely hedgerow on the pathway, a real treat to see! The trees across the road are just full of conkers (to the children's delight)! and again lovely coloured leaves. Oddly, not many birds about these last few days, even in the garden, just Blackbirds and Sparrows – but quite a few Butterflies with such attractive colourings. I was looking through my Jim Moir book on birds – such super drawings - please do ask to borrow it!

Red Admiral